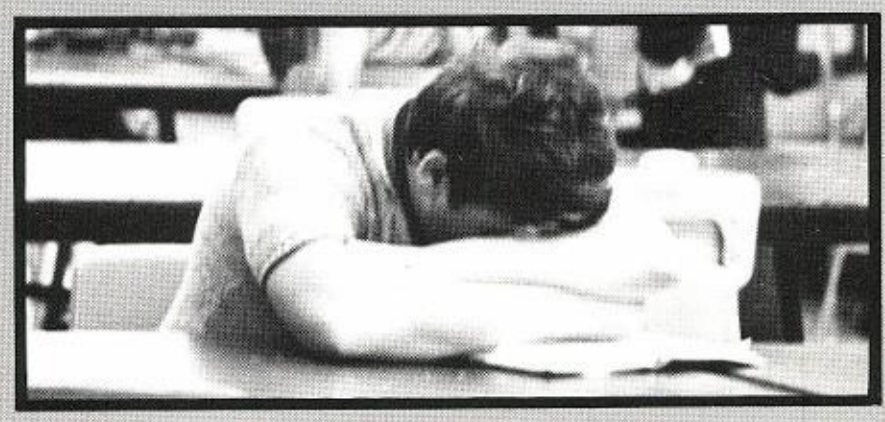
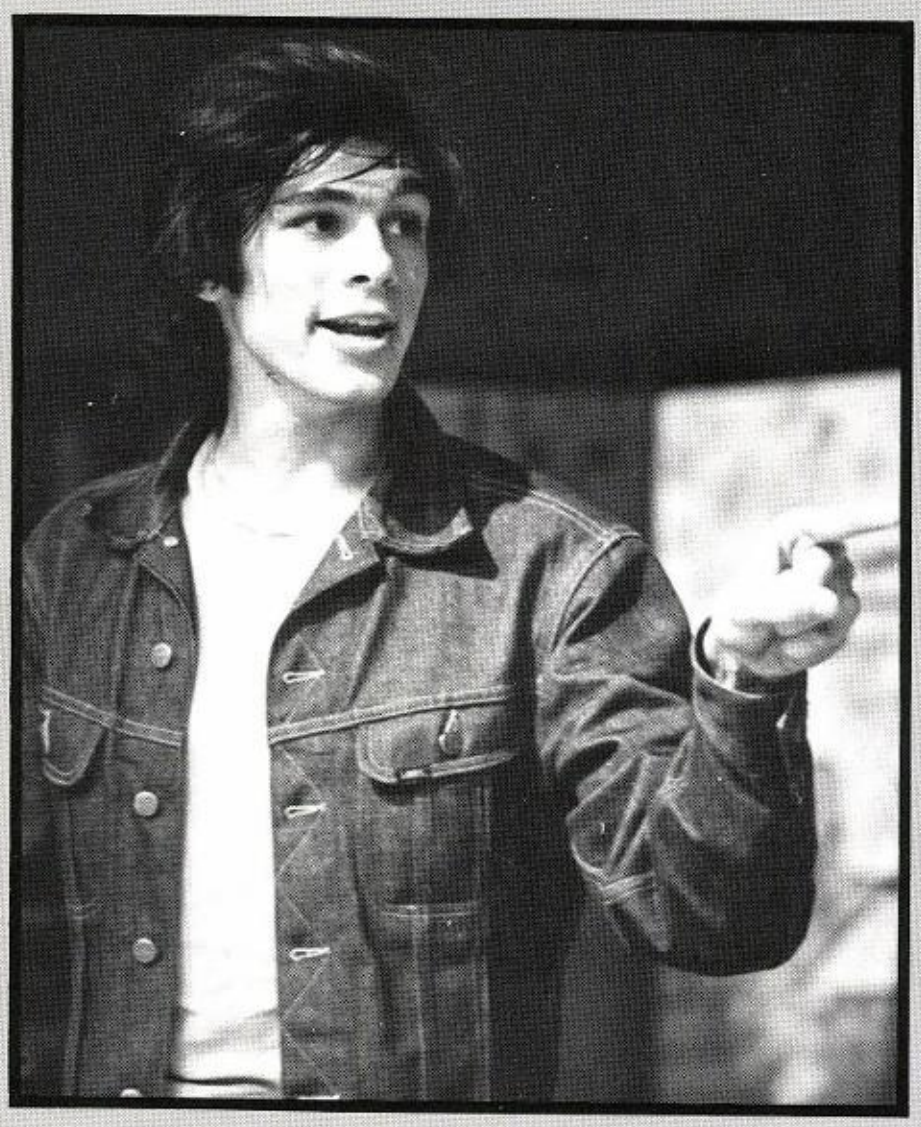
SUMMER	18
FALL	20
WINTER	38
SPRING	64

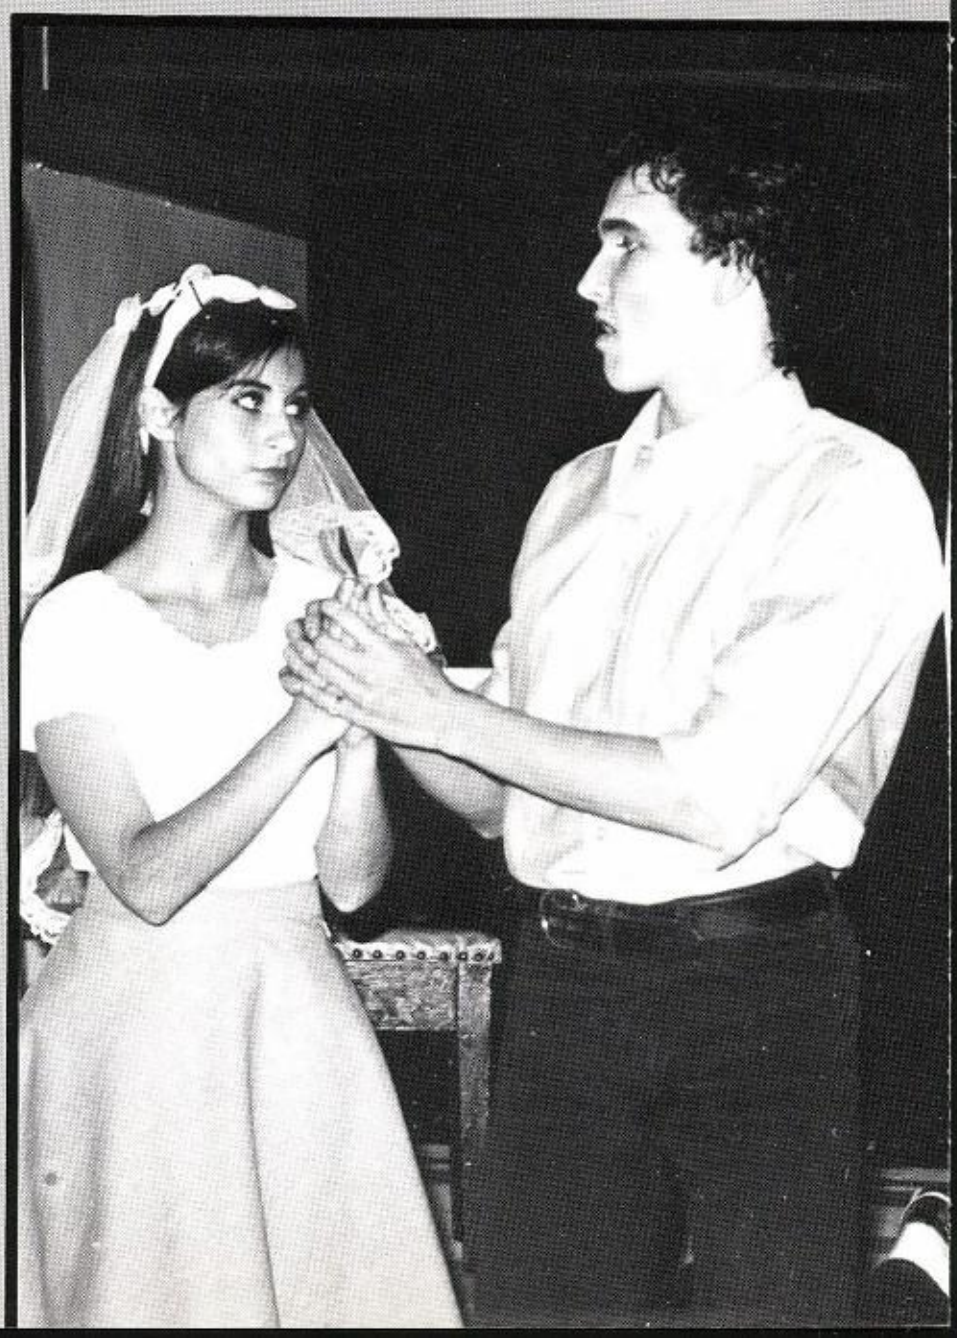


As Anita (Kristin Reeves) puts the finishing touches on Maria's dress, Maria talks of her hopes for the party.

Riff (Ken Schreiner) tells of his plans to crush the Sharks.



Maria (Pam Menas) and Tony (Tom Gray) act out their make-believe wedding.



West Side Story ends in tragedy as Maria holds her dying Tony.

'West Side Story' Thrills Audiences

West Side Story was the second summer musical that was performed by students from other schools along with Hersey students.

Four adults from the Des Plaines Theatre Guild also had parts in the show. The musical was performed August 4 and 5.

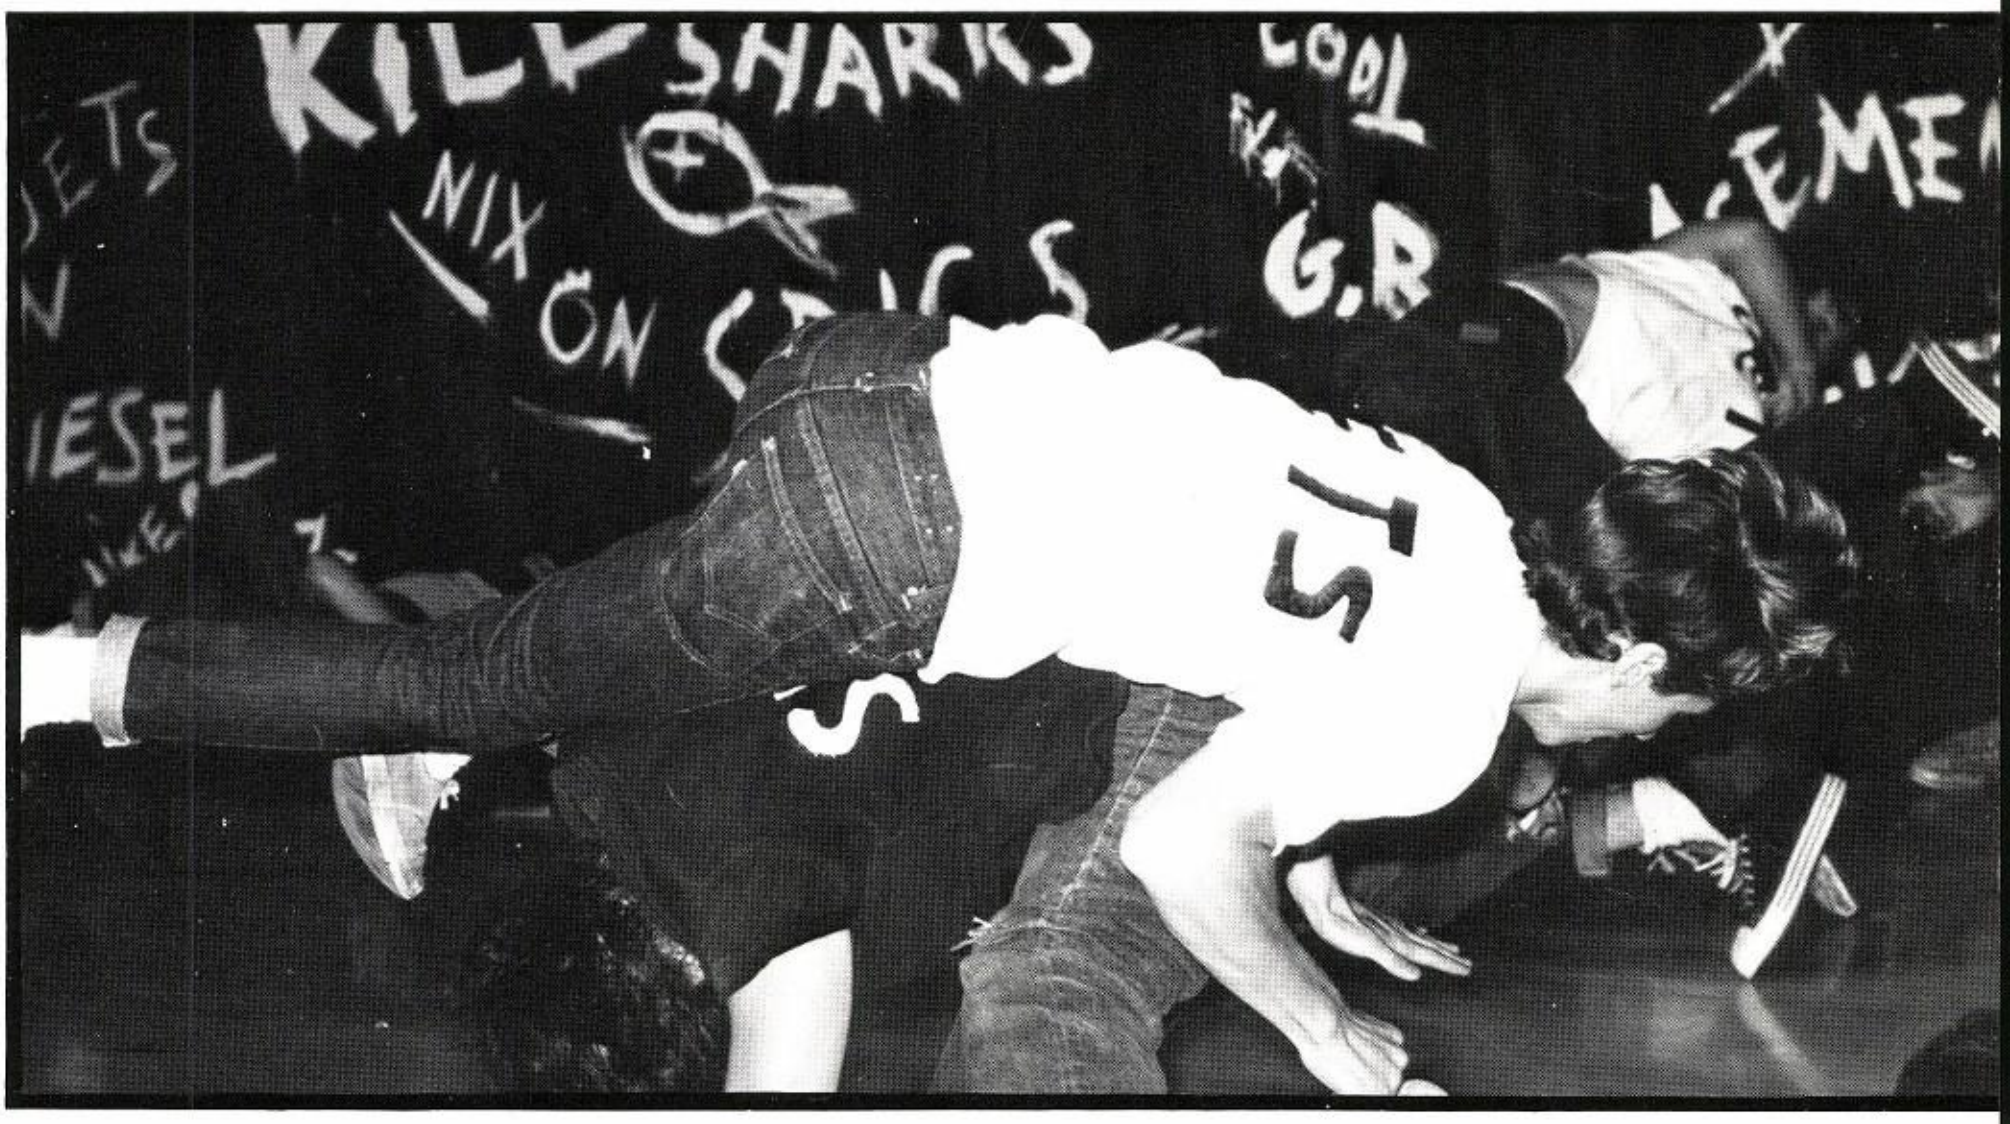
The plot of the show is almost identical to that of Romeo and Juliet.

Tony, a member of the Jets, and Maria, whose brother is the leader of the Sharks, a Puerto Rican group, fall in love despite the differences between the two groups.

Prejudices and battles keep the lovers apart until, finally, in one quarrel, Bernardo, leader of the Sharks, is killed by Tony.

The hatred between the Jets and Sharks deepens and soon Tony is dead also.

There is sorrow for both groups now and under this common grief they are finally brought together.



Another fight breaks out between the Sharks and the Jets.

Chris Wendell Voted Queen

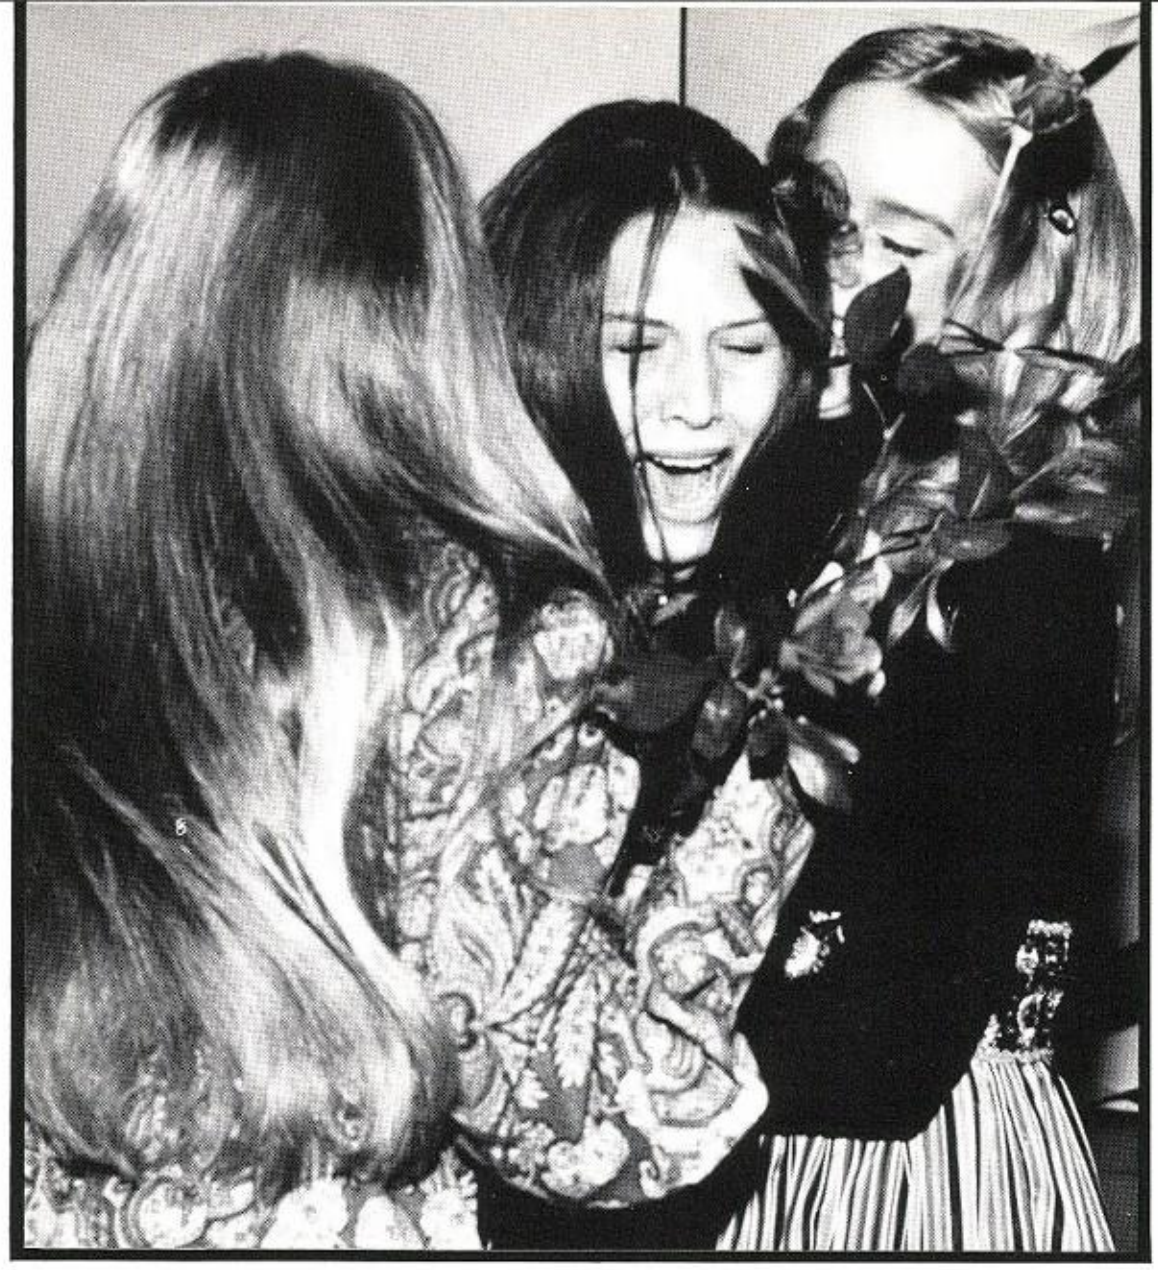
Homecoming week started off with Monday being class day. Each person wore something representing his or her own class.

Tuesday was T-shirt day; also hall decorations put up the night before were judged.

Wednesday was a combination of button day and grub day. At the beginning of the school day Thursday, the King and Queen candidates were presented to the student body. Thursday was also dress-up day, and coronation was held that night.

Queen candidates were Nancy Gallagher, Bobby Finch, Sarah Kaull, Patti Jacoby, and Chris Wendell. King candidates were Marty Friel, Pat Hart, Scott Robertson, Jeff Samaras, and Dennis Fitzpatrick.

Chris Wendell and Pat Hart were voted king and queen.



Sarah Kaull and Nancy Gallagher congratulate Chris Wendell as she became Hersey's 1972 Homecoming Queen.

Pages Jenny Rodgers and Mickey Shields walk toward the throne.

Hall decorations help to bring out the Homecoming spirit.

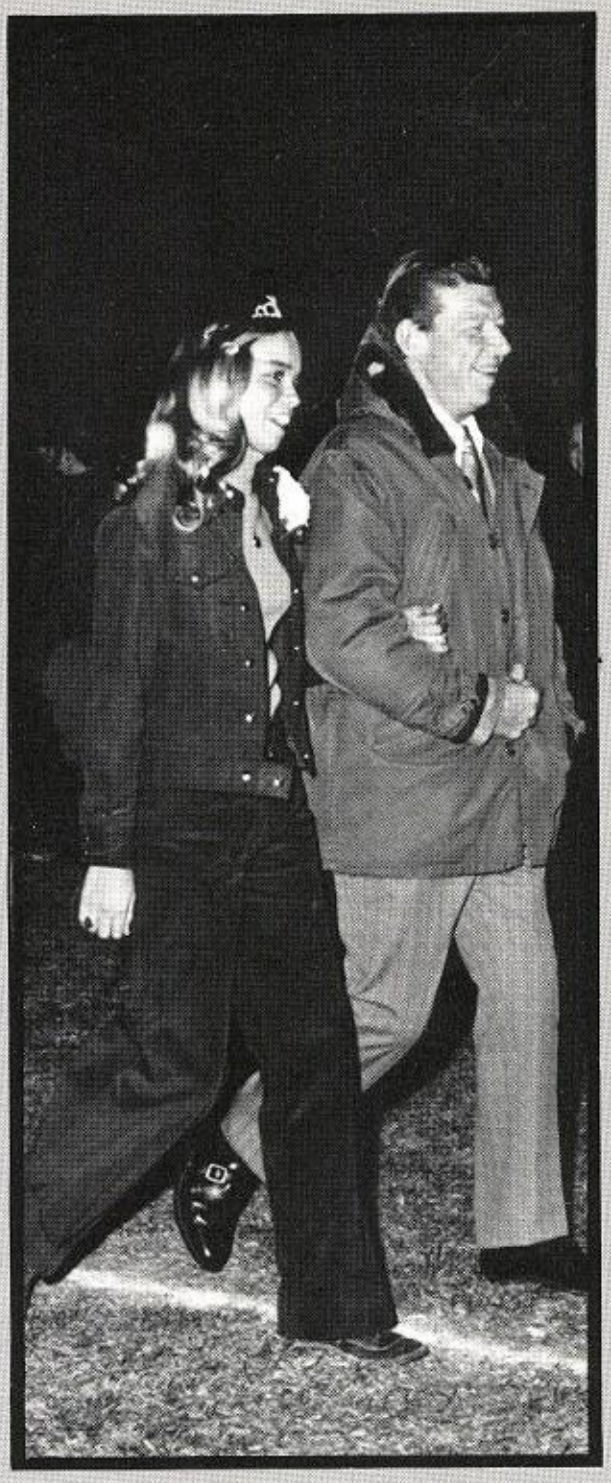
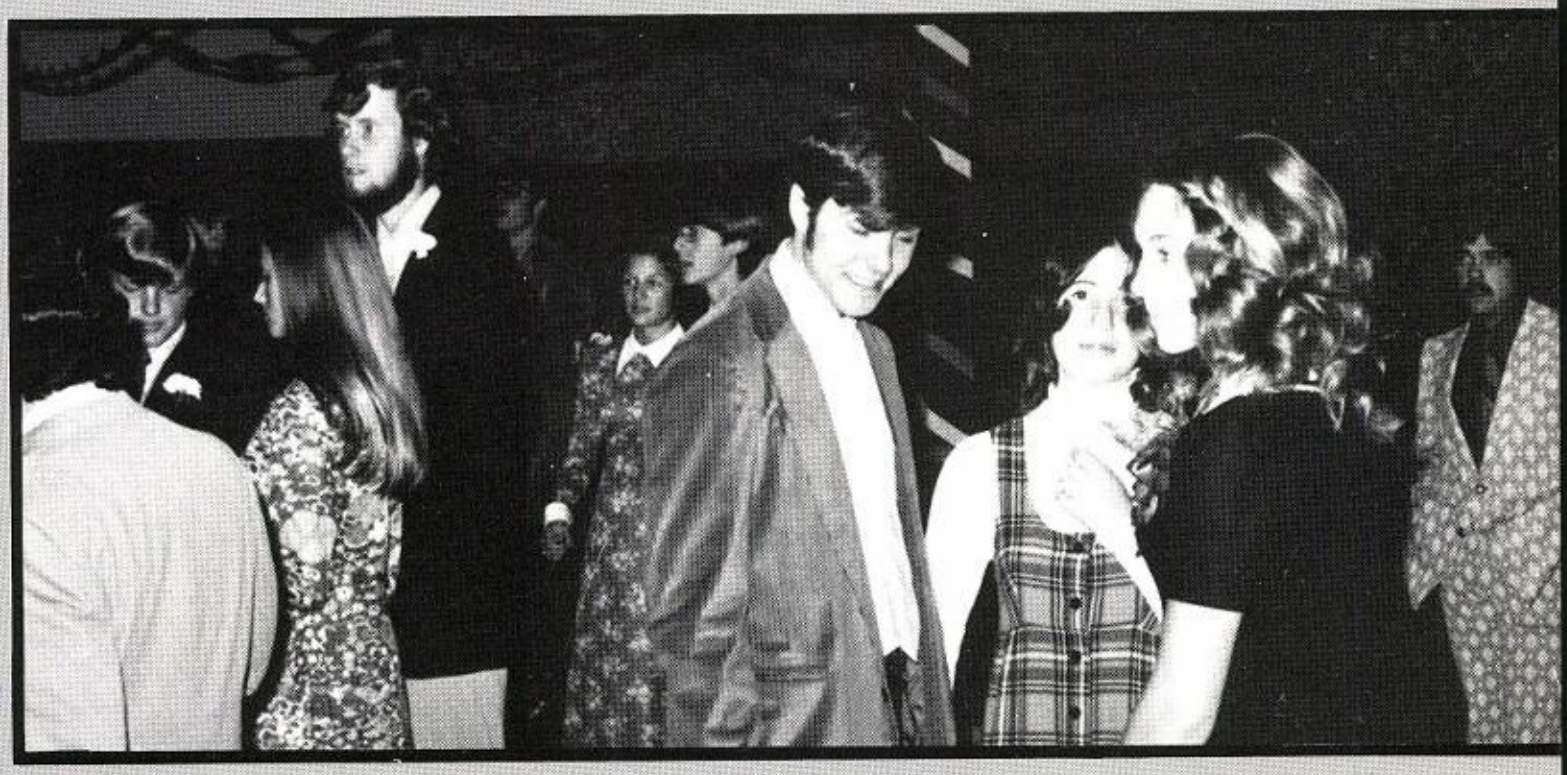
Couples make the "We Can Make it Happen" Homecoming dance happen.

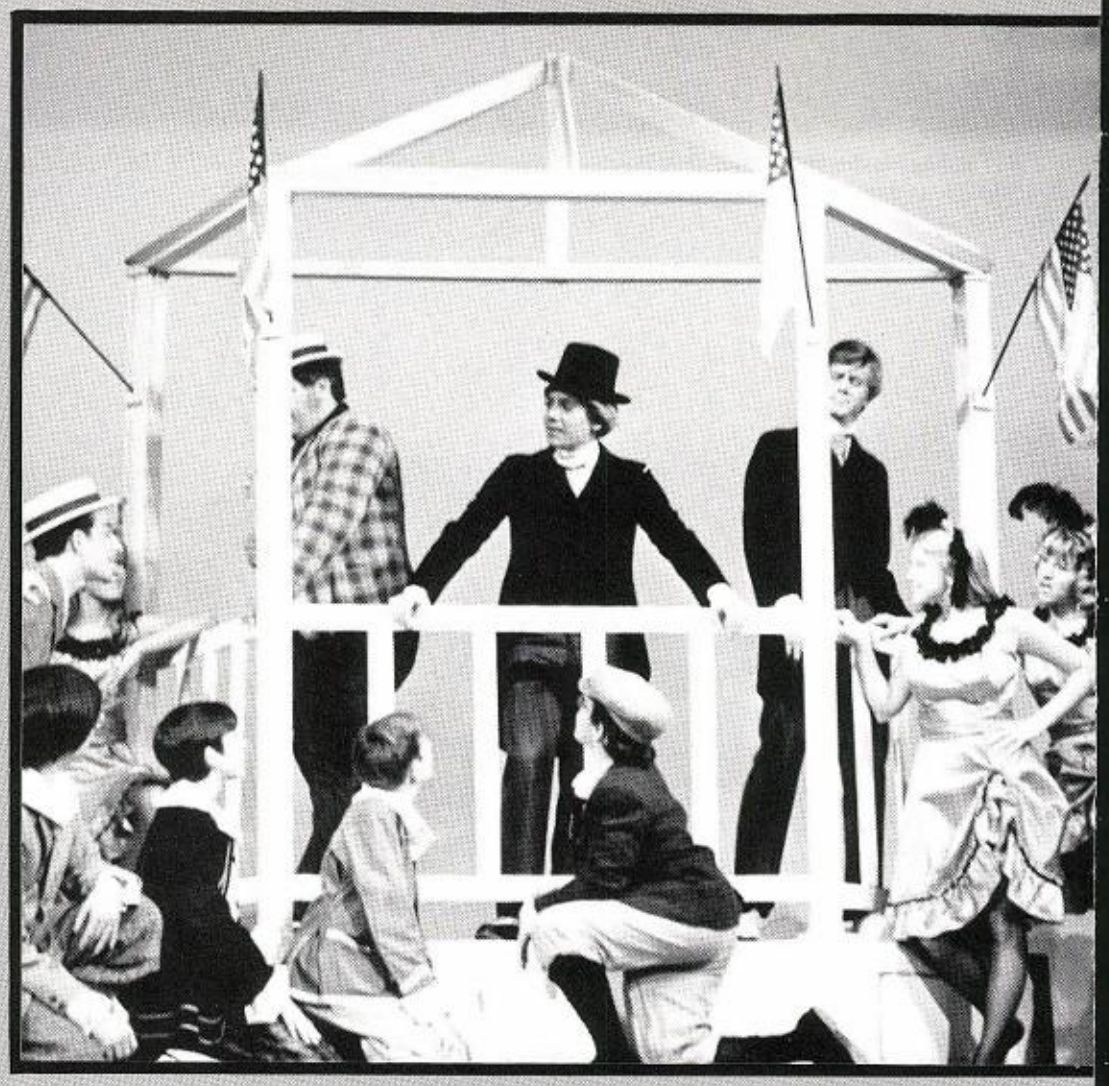


Mr. Friel presents princess Nancy Gallagher to homecoming fans.

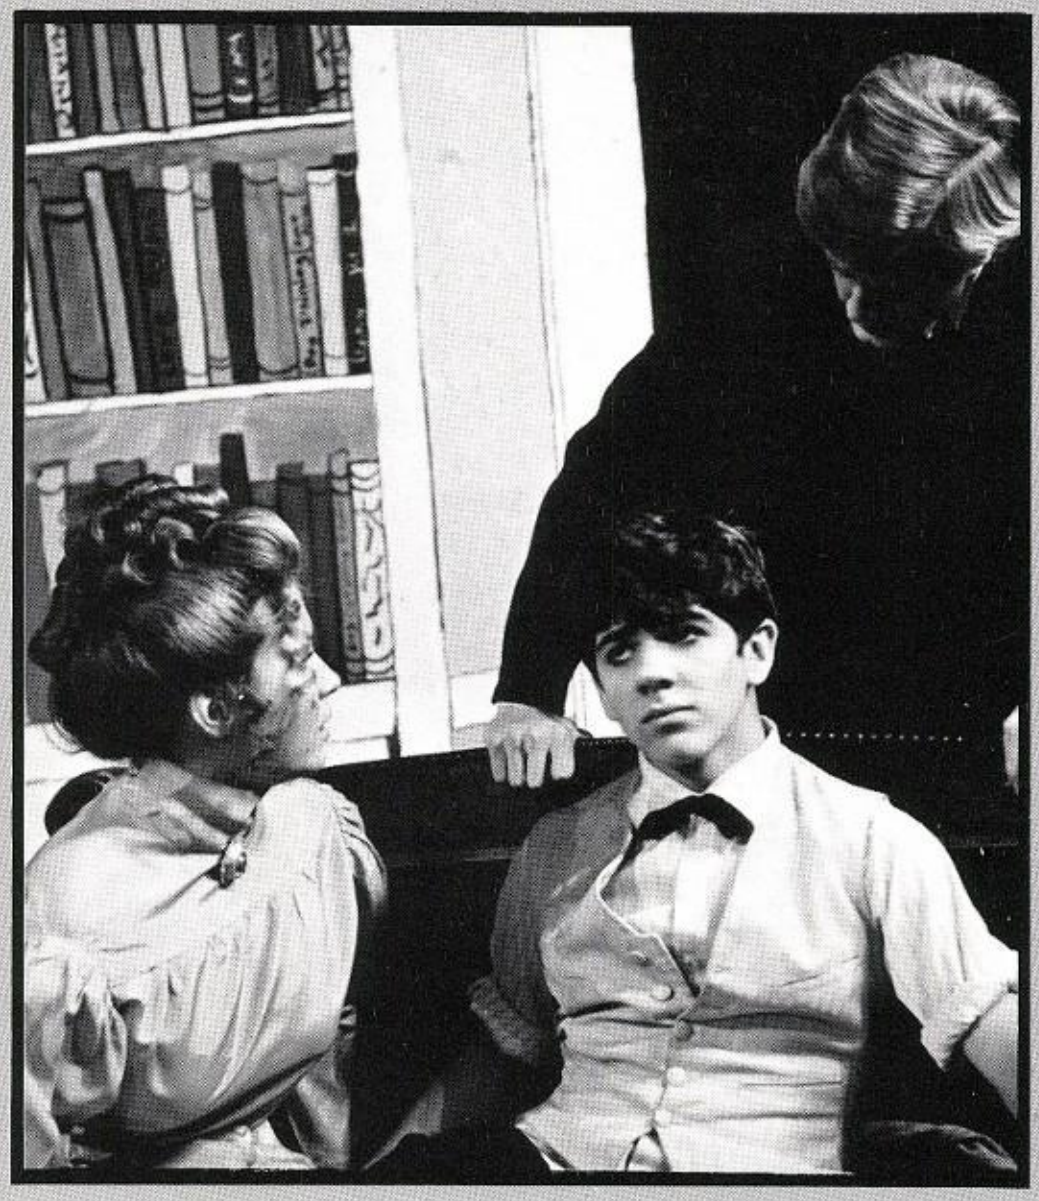


Couples socialize while waiting for the other guests to arrive.

Dan McDermott reaches the audience through an intensifying speech.



The chorus joins in for the Fourth of July picnic.



Essie (Cindy Trudeau) and Nat (Dan McDermott) question their son Richard (Kary Miller) of his whereabouts of the past evening.

'Take Me Along' Echoes Plight of Romance

This Year, instead of having a spring musical the Hersey Drama Department decided to change the pace a bit by having the musical in the Fall.

Take Me Along was presented November 9, 11, 17, and 18.

The story takes place in a small town and begins on the Fourth of July. There are two small plots within the main story, one of which is the heartbreaking love affair of Sid, played by Vince Monteleone, and Lily, played by Diane Bolash.

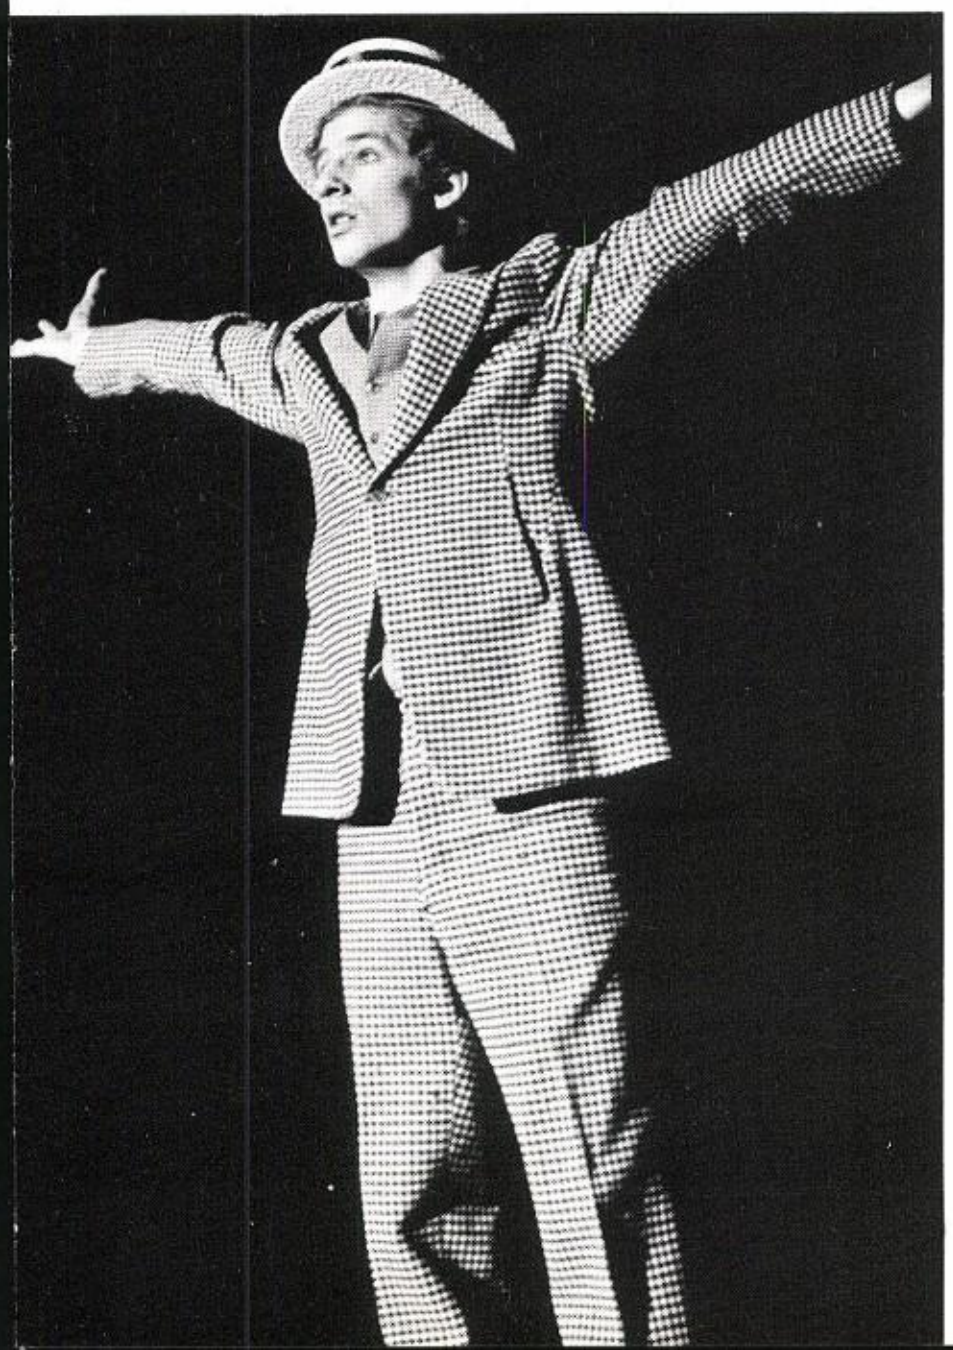
The second plot tells of the young love affair between Richard, portrayed by Kary Miller, and Muriel, played by Diane Gabbei.

Other major characters were Nat and Essie, portrayed by Dan McDermott and Cindy Trudeau.

And of course, the story ends up happily. Sid and Lily go off together, Richard and Muriel are content with each other, and then, the curtain closes.

Muriel (Diane Gabbei) weeps at the thought of Richard leaving her.

Wint (Dave Nunes) tries to convince Richard to come to the Pleasant Beach House for some real fun.



Sid (Vince Monteleone) gives a gift of flowers and candy to his longtime sweetheart Lily (Diane Bolash).

Pomberets' display wishes everyone a Merry Christmas.

Gridders Take North Crown

1972 proved to be a repeat of 1971 for Joe Gliwa and his marine-type football machine. There were only two differences between this season and last. Hersey lost to Elk Grove twice instead of just once, and did what was said to be impossible by beating Arlington's Cardinals 15-12.

Mainly, though, the pattern was the same. Hersey took Elk Grove in the playoffs, and lost in an exciting match 9-0 to one of the top teams in the state.

Individaul honors were achieved by Marty Friel, Kevin Pancratz, Mark Zakula, Scott Miesfeldt, and Scott Robertson. All five of these players were chosen for all-conference teams, with Zakula, Friel, and Pancratz on all-area teams. Friel and Pancratz took high honors on the team as they were chosen for all-state teams.

Cross Country Team Takes Second In State

Topping off a fantastic 1972 cross country season, our harriers went to Peoria, Illinois, for the 1972 Illinois Cross Country meet. The distance men did themselves extremely well, walking off with second place honors. Husky power eliminated stiff competition all along the trail, as they first took second place in the conference with an 8-2-1 record, then went to the district meet at Elk Grove and qualified for sectionals with a fourth place finish.

Coming through with another big second in sectional competition, the Huskies went downstate with enthusiasm, encouragement, and determination.

Stars of the 1972 fall season were Sophomore Jay McCarthy, seniors Dan Reider and John Jones, and juniors Tom Burridge and Chris Cooney. Rounding out the seven man squad were sophomores Dave Jones and Ron Stephani.

Coach Larry Travis and assistant coach Pat Tuttle expect another fine season next year, with five of seven runners returning to the Hersey Course.

Bobbi Finch Reigns Over Xmas Ball

Winter Fantasy, the theme of the annual Christmas Ball on December 23 in the cafeteria carried with it the usual holiday atmosphere and decorations.

Highlighting the evening's festivities was the annual crowning of the Ball's Queen for the evening as senior Bobbi Finch was selected from a field of nine hopeful candidates.

Mr. Antrobus tries to ward off the advances of Sabina.

'Skin Of Our Teeth' Chronicles Man

The popular Thornton Wilder play of the 1940's, The Skin of Our Teeth, was presented on the Hersey stage, February 2,3.

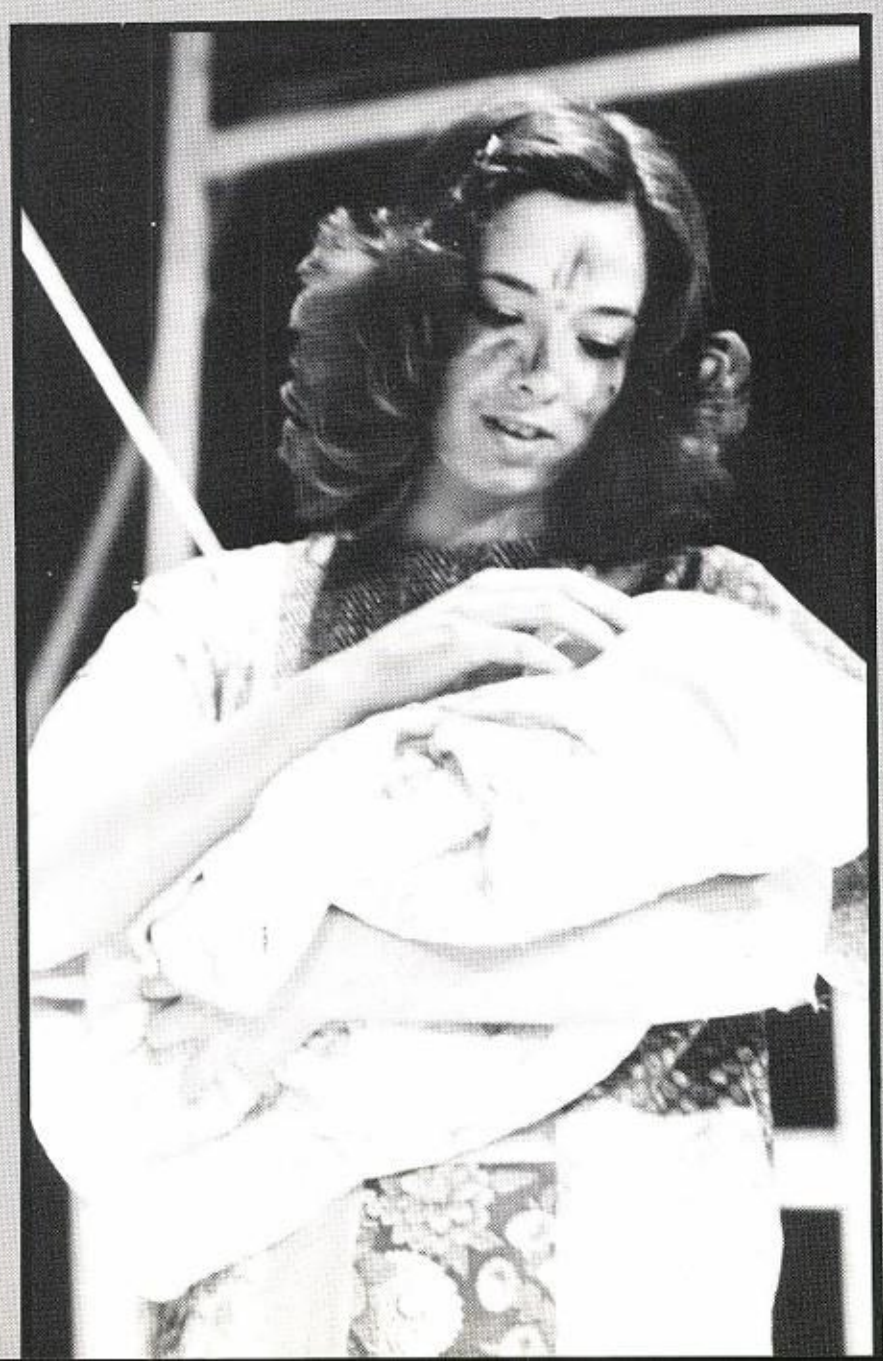
Chronicling the history of mankind's ability to overcome the supposedly insurmountable obstacles placed in his path by himself and outside forces, Wilder's drama has as its theme man's overcoming these forces.

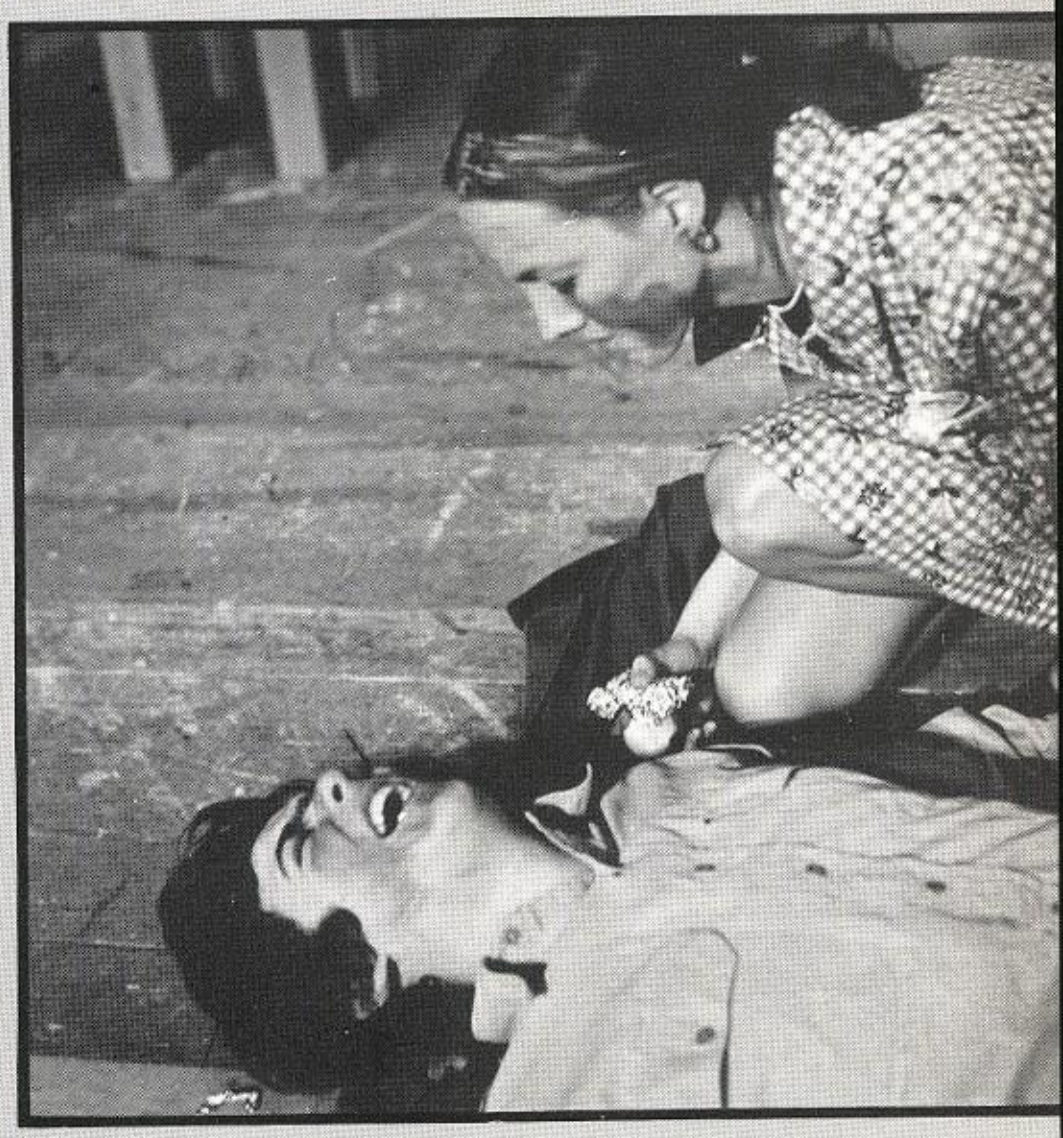
Set in three distinct periods of history — ice age, great flood and modern day — the drama continues after the audience has left the theatre.

Playing leading roles were Dan McDermott, Becky Wurtz, Patti Eversman, Tony Zungrone, Debbie Brown and Sue Neugebauer.

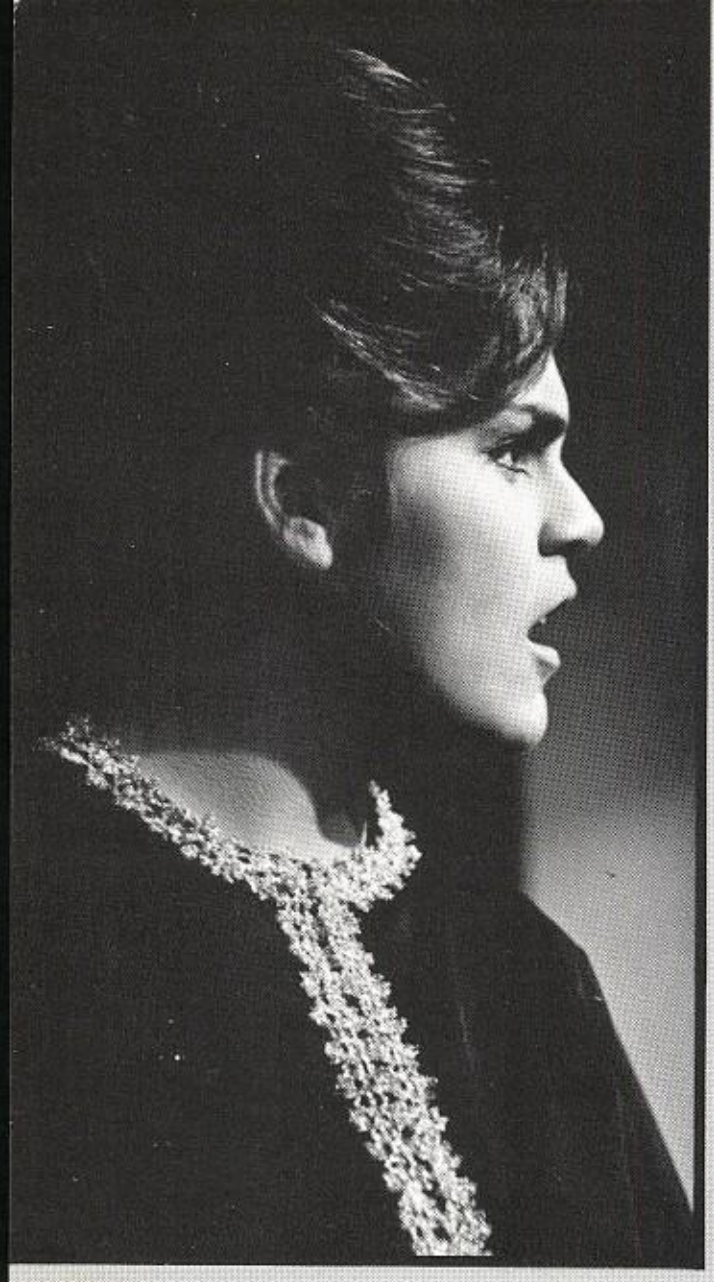
Directing the play was John Marquette assisted by Jerry Lowe and John Boehm with lighting and set construction.

Gladys (Debbie Brown) cuddles her infant child after the war's end.





Mrs. Antrobus attempts to comfort her son Henry (Tony Zungrone).



Debbie Oliver (Chorus) foretells Antigone's doom.

George Bozlinski (Mimist) enacts symbolic interpretation of tragedy.

'Antigone' Favors Man's Individuality

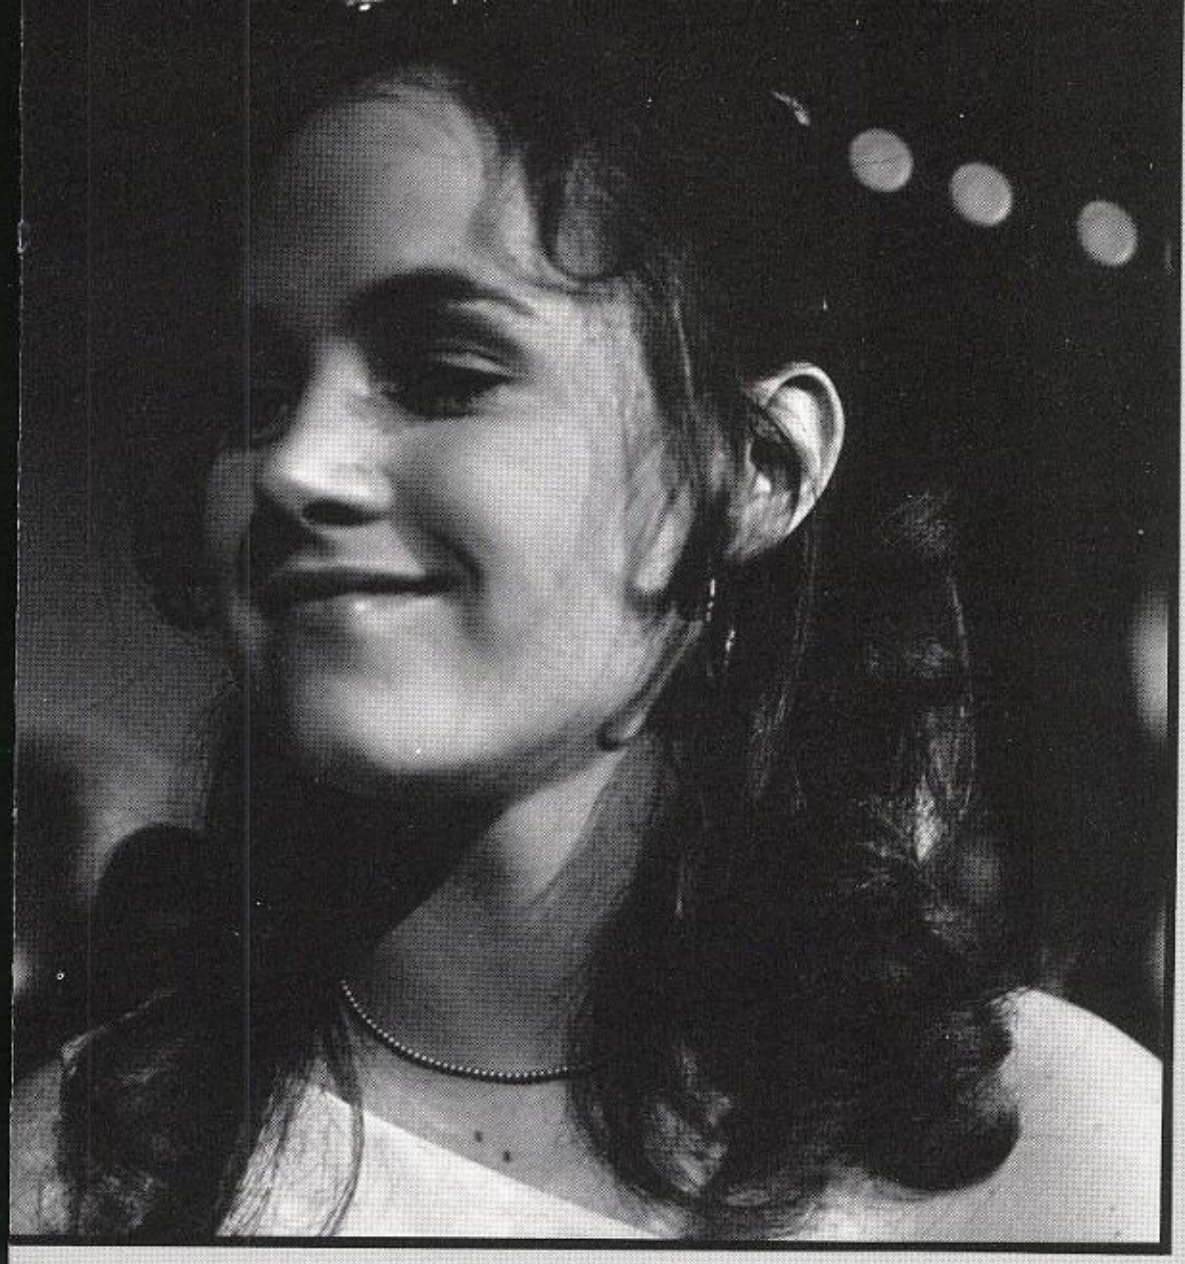
Hersey's Theatre presented French playwright Jean Anouilh's modern tragedy, Antigone, on March 9, 10.

The play was first produced in Nazi occupied France in 1943 carrying the legend of the young girl Antigone who stood up against the tyrant King Creon and died rather than surrender her moral beliefs.

Set against a stark background of chrome and glossy black, the tragedy confronted the audience once again with the age-old conflict between the individual and the state; of purity and corruption.

Dan McDermott and Diane Saber portrayed the lead roles of Creon and Antigone with Debbie Oliver presiding over the scenes as the Greek Chorus.

The unusual features of the production were the use of mimes as accompaniment for the chorus and the creation of a completely original musical score by Hersey math teacher John Boehm. The production was directed by Jerry Lowe.



Gail McGilliard (Ismene) smirks at old woman's sentimentality.

Diane Saber (Antigone) swears Rich Laich (Haemon) to secrecy.

Dan McDermott (Creon) admonishes Antigone for her willfulness.

Cagers Finish 11-12; Place 6th In MSL

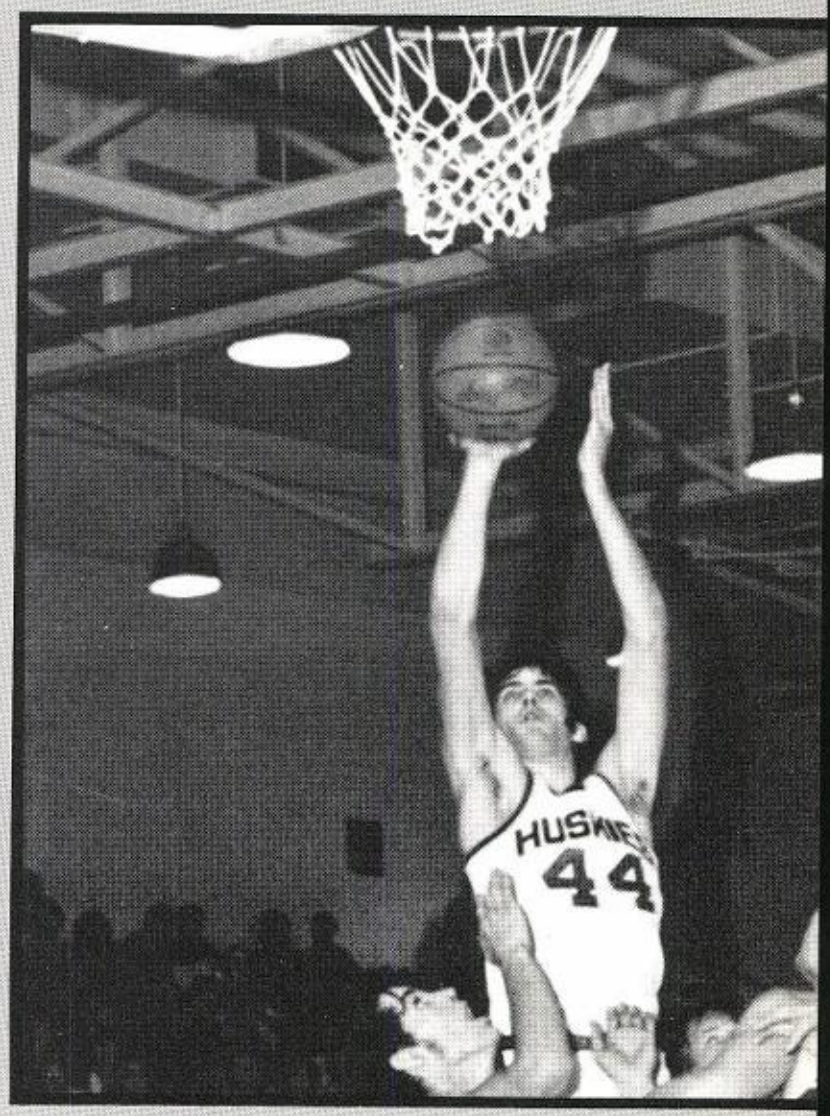
Starting off the season on a seesaw basis, winning some and losing some, the Huskies had to wait until midseason before they came into stride by putting together their talents by winning four in a row against Glenbard North, Prospect, Rolling Meadows and Palatine.

However, the string was broken and the Huskies divided their remaining games.

Basing their attack around center Dave Corzine, the Huskies were defensed in such a way that the effectiveness of the big man was often nullified by two-timing defensive patterns of opponents.

In the Conference playoffs, Hersey was pitted against third place winner of the south division, Forest View.

Taking an early lead that eventually was eradicated, the Huskies finally had to go into double overtime before the decision went to Forest View, 64-62, putting the Huskies in 6th place in the MSL.



Greg Hale is high above maddening crowd on jump shot.

Matmen Take Conference Title

For the third consecutive year, Coach Tom Porter's Husky matmen managed to take the Mid-Suburban Conference title home.

Sporting a hefty 8-0 record in the conference, the Huskies compiled an overall dual meet record of 17-3-0 on the road to the State competition.

In the District Meet at Rolling Meadows, Kurt Weisenborn, Dave Schachner, Keith Hahn, Pat Hart, Brian Nelson and Kevin Pancratz all survived the competition to go on to the Sectional Meet at Evanston.

In the Sectionals, Pancratz took a First, and Weisenborn and Schachner both took Third place awards.

At the State Meet at Champaign, Pancratz just missed winning the State title as he was upset by New Trier's Jeff Stewart in the final match. Kevin had beaten Stewart the week before in the Sectionals.

Winning All-Conference honors at season's end were Jeff Reinhart and Kevin Pancratz.

Varsity Finish 7-7 Take 5th In District

Capping their season with their strongest season to date, the varsity swimmers finished their year with a 7-7 record and went on to a fifth place showing in the District Meet at Highland Park.

After taking a first place in the Conference diving competition, Allen Zasadny then went on to capture Second in the District competition qualifying him for the State meet at Hinsdale South where he finished eighteenth in the State.

In Mid-Suburban competition, the Frosh swimmers finished in First place with the Sophs taking a respectable Third Place and the Varsity taking Fifth.

Looking toward next season the Varsity team should be at its strongest with the return of Kevin Taylor, Bob Larue, Bob Butler, Dave Henderson, Dave Johnson, Craig Bruce, Jeff Siler, Jeff Speakman, Tim Brennan and Chris Tague.

At season's end, Allen Zasadny was named All-Conference in the Mid-Suburban League.

Radio Clubs Sponsor 1st St. Pat's Dance

The combined radio clubs at Hersey gathered their forces on March 17th to sponsor the first St. Patrick's day dance in Hersey's history.

During the course of the evening, which featured the usual St. Pat's day decor, guests were entertained with the music of the Feast.

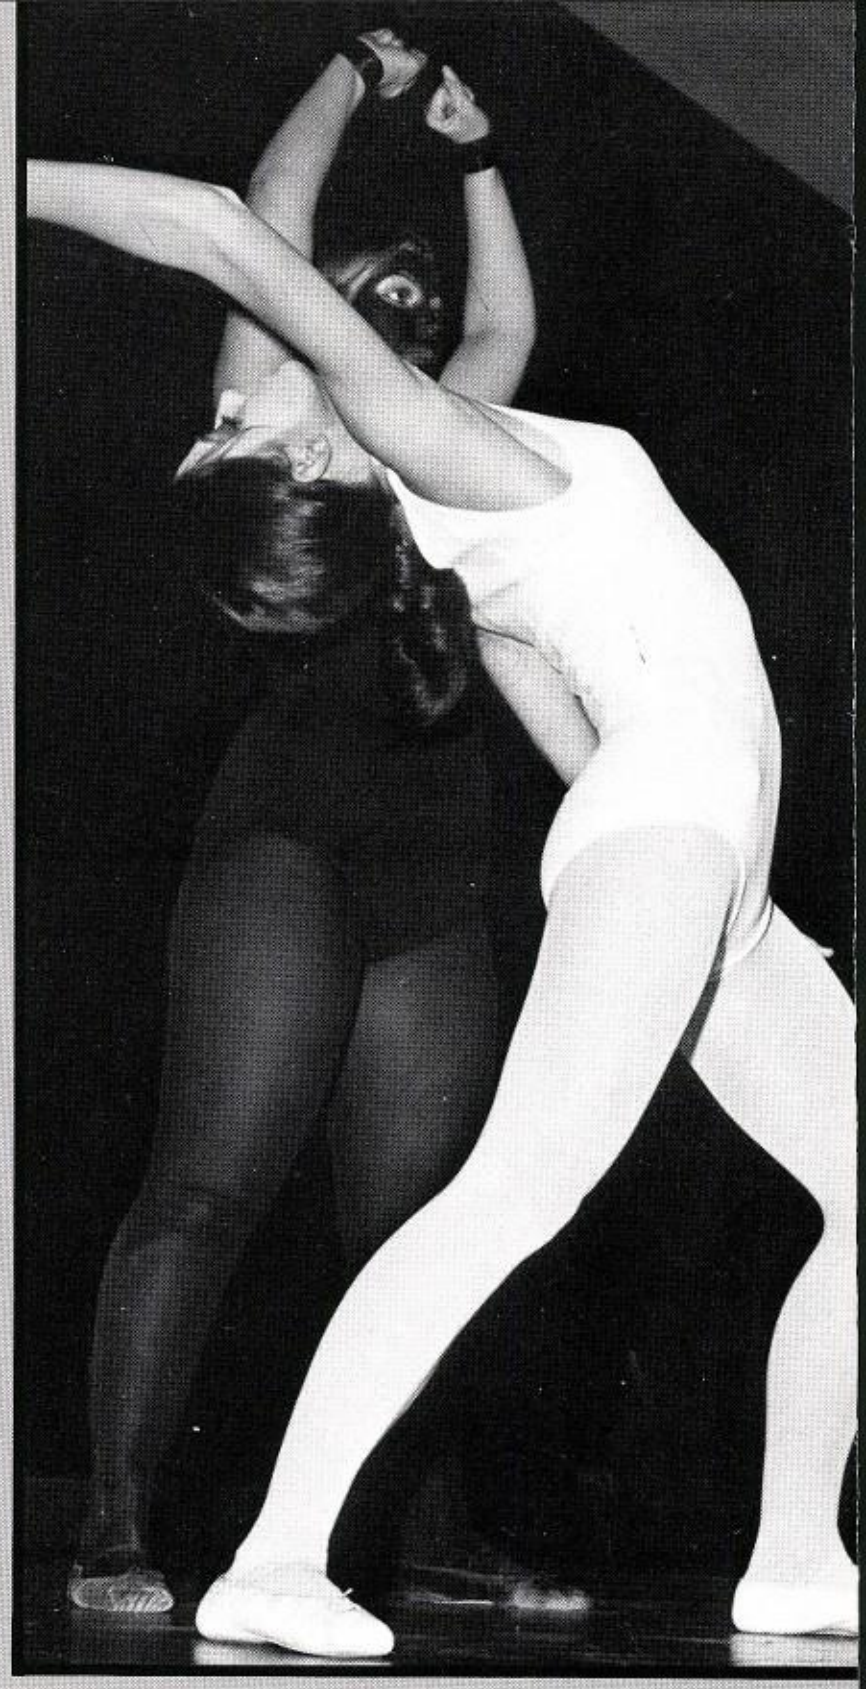
Highlighting the evening was the crowning of Dave Komiss as King of the Little People together with his Queen Nancy Meyer.

Winning the dance competition were Jimbo Legh Page and Shelly Johnson.

The Feast provided the musical background for St. Pat's dance.

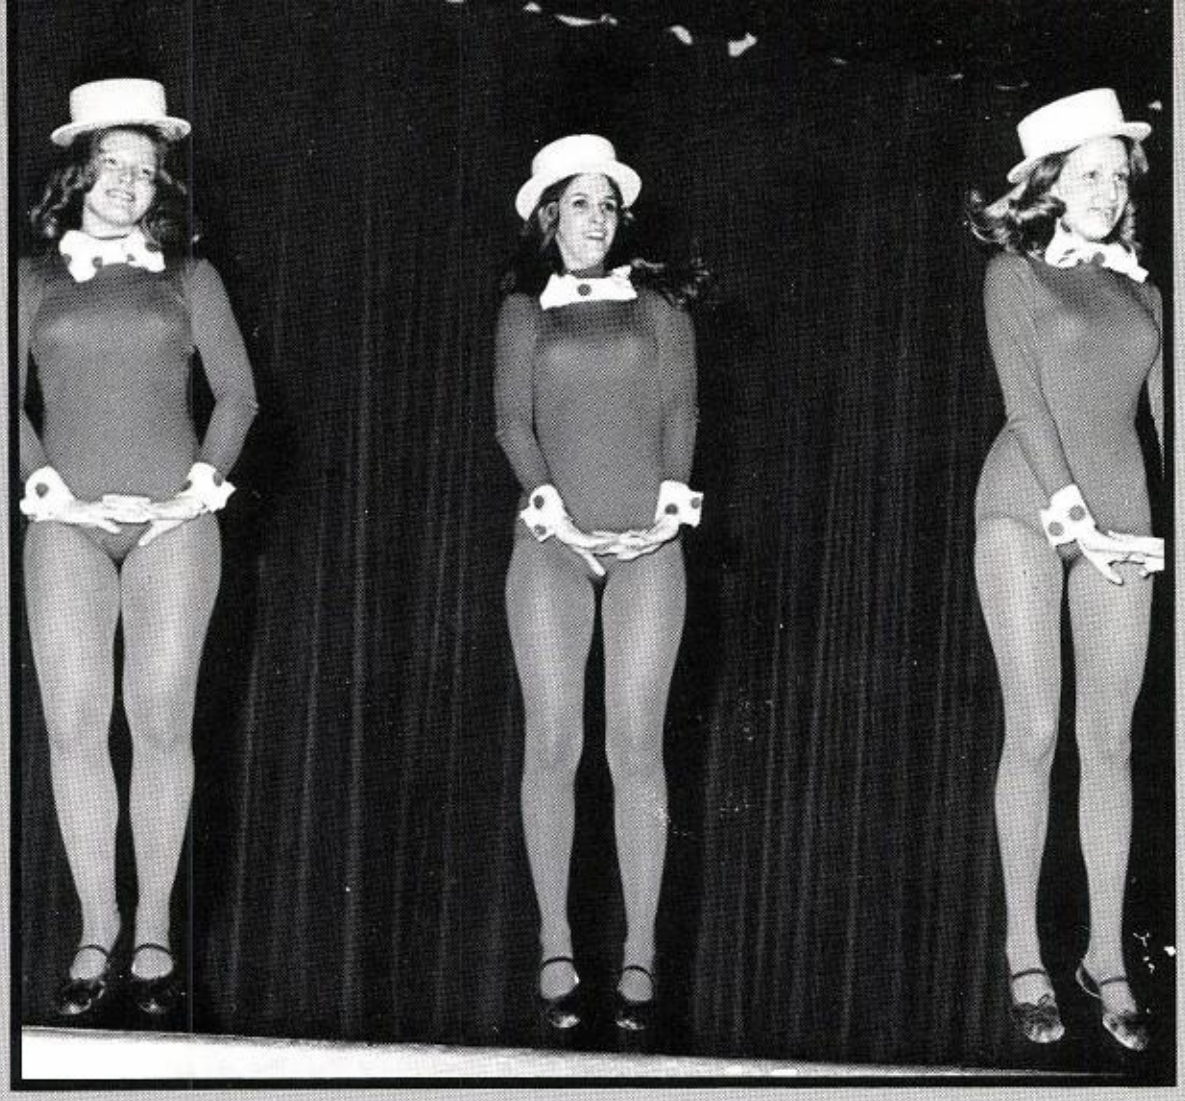
Keren Jelen, Melissa Krakowiak and Barb Lynn tap to Wilkomen, the popular song from Cabaret.

Helene Kelly, Becky Lephart and Pat Collins interpret the dance style of the 1950's.



Cindy Trudeau and Diane Saber portray their message through dramatic dance.

The Butterflies, Barb Lynn, Roberta Hammersly, Julie Rodgers and Diane Saber announce the beginning of spring.



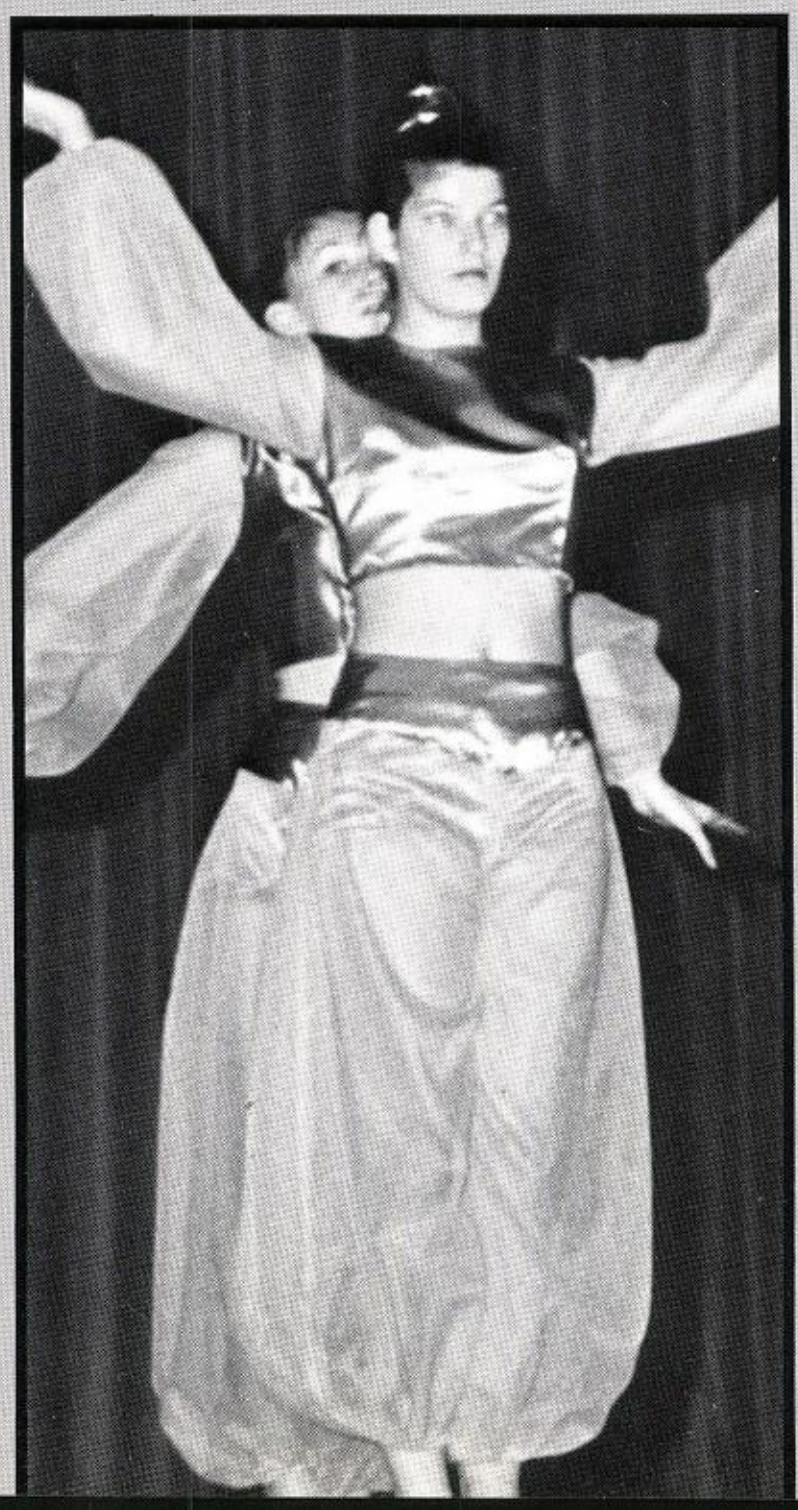
Judy Huck, Cathy Zold and Patti Collins dance to Razzmatazz.

Orchesis Troupe Presents 'Identity'

Hersey's Orchesis troupe presented its annual spring dance concert in the little theatre on March 23, 24, featuring the theme of "Identity".

Directed by Mrs. Cynthia Duffy, the show featured popular dance renditions of Willkommen from Cabaret; a representative dance interpretation of the dance styles of the 1950's; Ooga Booga showing the characteristics of the cavemen and a finale song from the popular musical Bye Bye Birdie.

Mary Haughey and Sue Kopke create an Oriental mood.



Cindy Pierce and Linda Kolben show the perspective of elasticity.

Dee, Your a great friend, but your better at kissing my Bambino or did it get smashed. (Just Kidding) Love Denise

Dee your a cool kid stay as sweet as you are. Good-luck in the future. Your a good friend of mine. Jackie

Deanna, Well another year has past and I'm glad I have been friends with you again like the last year. This year started off to be bad with Carol Jackson but you made me see she was a bitch. Well I'm glad it ended up like this with being good friends. I hope this summer we can still be good friends & have a good time together. Good luck
Love Sheila

Dee,
you're one of sweetest people in this entire world. Don't ever change cuz you're perfect. Let's always be friends. Have the greatest summer ever. Drop by sometime. This year was just perfect. We had fun at Buck and at school. Promise you'll keep in touch after I move, okay? Keep cool!
Luv ya,
Debbie
(Bucky)

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Without the wealth of cooperation from many groups and individuals, the production of the 1973 Endeavor would have been virtually impossible.

Primarily responsible for the production of the book were the people at American Yearbook Company and in particular Messrs. Dennis Eder our representative and Bob Gerety our plant representative in Topeka, Kansas — to them our thanks.

Providing us with on-the-spot coverage of events and thousands of photos from which to make selections for the 1973 Endeavor was the task of Root Photographers. Helping us with scheduling and making sure deadlines were met photographically were Mrs. Marge Dompke, Miss Kay Eilert, Mrs. Maria Schultz and Mr. Joe Ogata — to them and all at Root, our thanks.

Without the continued cooperation of students, faculty and administration there would certainly have been no 1973 Endeavor. To all of you for your undying efforts our special thanks.

Finally, we must acknowledge the following people for providing us with some of photographs which appear in the 1973 Endeavor: Mr. Bert Nyberg; Mr. Greg Warner of Paddock Publications; Jay Dennenberg, Brian Pickering and Rick Gardzelewski of Hersey for some of their sports pictures and candids. To all of them our thanks.

The Editors.

Dee
You are a real nice girl and I hope it stays that way
Lots of Love
Steve Angl

Dee,
Your a Really lot of fun in Biology always cheating off you I Don't Know what I am gonna do next year in Science with out you. Your Really sweat stay that way
Love
Sue

Dee, You are my Bestest friend and I know you'll always be. When
You get that special (cutie, ugly yes) guy you know
I have to approve. You are also an asshole (just kidding) and you invite yourself to swim. You rowdie Mother. Please don't ever change. This year we had our ups and downs. Next it all came out in the end. And if you have another party and forget to tell me I'll never let you swim in my pool again. Remember
I DON'T SWIM IN YOUR TOILET PLEASE DON'T P!S
IN MY POOL!!! Well don't do any thing I wouldn't do!!! (THAT MEANS YOU CAN DO EVERYTHING)
Your Bestest
Rowdiest friend
Sam
